

Broken hearts needs to cry

Music: mc'd / Lyrics: M.Costa & J.Inderbitzin

Just another kiss underneath blue skies.
Her trembling lips, just said goodbye.
These few words she whispered into my ear.
Forced me to feel my greatest fears.

Lost in the darkness. Can't find no light.
Try to get over it. Set things right.
With all the words between the lines.
I tried to figure out the truth. Some hidden signs.

Broken heart needs to cry. Give it shelter. Don't let it die!
Broken heart needs to cry. Give it shelter. Let time pass by.

I wish I had the chance to rewind.
You left me standing with a big mess in my mind.
Gimme some reasons that will pull me through.
Gimme some reasons so I can hate you.

I try to run away like I've committed a crime.
I've got a weight in my soul. Keeps me stuck in time.
You know I'm still alive. My wounded heart it beats.
Listen to me know. I'm gonna tell you what it needs.

Broken heart needs to cry. Give it shelter. Don't let it die!
Broken heart needs to cry. Give it shelter. Let time pass by.

*When darkness turns into the light.
And all clouds disappear.
Every single word starts to make sense.
And it just feels right.*
